Detroit Firefighter Terrill Hardaway Charged with Second Degree Murder

Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy has charged Detroit firefighter Terrill Ian Hardaway, 35 (DOB 6/10/77), in connection with the fatal shooting death of Tony Jackson, 41, of Detroit. On December 29, 2012, at approximately 12:30 a.m., Hardaway entered a bar located in the 19300 block of Schoolcraft in Detroit and approached Jackson, who was working there as a disc jockey. There was a verbal and physical altercation that was interrupted by security personnel. The two men were separated and taken outside. It is alleged that once outside, the defendant continued to be the aggressor, when both men pulled out handguns and fired. Jackson sustained multiple gunshot wounds and was transported to a local hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival. The defendant sustained a single gunshot wound to the shoulder. Hardaway was treated and released from a local hospital. More detailed facts will be revealed at the preliminary examination in the case.

Hardaway has been charged with Second Degree Murder and Felony Firearm. He is expected to be arraigned at 10:30 a.m. in 36th District Court.
