Fredrick K. Young and Ferlando D. Hunter Charged in the 2012 Homicides of Westland Teens

The conclusion of an extensive investigation conducted by the Detroit Police Department, in conjunction with the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, has resulted in homicide charges for Fredrick K. Young, 25 (DOB: 10/8/88) of Detroit and Fernando D. Hunter, 23 (DOB: 8/16/90), of Jackson, Michigan. The two defendants have been charged with the July, 2012 homicides of Jacob Kudla, 18 and Jourdan Bobbish, 17, both of Westland. On July 27, 2012 at approximately 9:00 a.m., Detroit police officers responded to a run to a field located at Lyford and French Road in Detroit. The officers observed the remains of two dead bodies that had suffered gunshot wounds and were later identified as Kudla and Bobbish. It is alleged that Young and Hunter robbed, tortured, imprisoned and killed both victims. More specific details of the case will be presented in court at the preliminary examination.

Young and Hunter have each been charged with: First Degree Premeditate Murder, First Degree Felony Murder, Torture, Armed Robbery, Unlawful Imprisonment and Felony Firearm. Fredrick Young has been charged with Felon in Possession of a Firearm.

Both defendants were bound over as charged today and their arraignment on the warrant in Wayne County Third Circuit Court is scheduled for July 23, 2014 at 9:00 a.m.
