Evan Reed - Former Tiger baseball player accused of sexually assaulting a woman at Motor City Casino. On November 21, 2014 Judge Kenneth King dismissed the two counts of Criminal Sexual Conduct Third Degree which carries a 15 years maximum penalty charged against the defendant. On November 25, 2014, Wayne County Circuit Court Criminal Division Judge Michael Callahan reversed and remanded the case back to 36th District Court ordering Judge King to sign a bind over order.

Yesterday Judge King granted defendant's request for a stay in proceedings based upon his filing a delayed application for leave to the Michigan Court of Appeals over the prosecution's objection.

Today the prosecution's Emergency Motion Compel Judge King to enter the bind over order was before Judge Timothy Kenny. Judge Kenny ruled that the court rules only allow WCPO to file an application for leave to appeal Judge King's order staying the case pending appeal and the case was blind drawn to Judge Shannon Walker. Judge Walker gave the defense until Monday, February 9, 2015 to file a response and set the matter over until Feb 25, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. for her ruling. It does not appear that there will be argument by the parties on that day.

MAN CHARGED IN HOMICIDE OF ELDERLY MAN ON MANSFIELD STREET

Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy has charged Quanzell Alonzo Hood, 20 (DOB: 03/08/1994) of Detroit, in connection with the death of an 86 year-old-man. On February 1, 2015, Detroit Police Officers found the body of Arthur Weldon Neal, 86, in the basement of a house located in the 15800 block of Mansfield in Detroit. It is alleged that Hood knew the victim, believed the victim was in possession of a sum of money and that Hood beat the victim to death during the larceny or attempted larceny of that money.

Hood has been charged with one count each of First Degree Murder and Felony Murder. He is expected to be arraigned tomorrow in Romulus. Please confirm the time with the court.
