Detroit Man Charged in Car Crash with Two Police Cars

Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy has charged Julian K. Duncan, 54 (DOB: 8/15/60), of Detroit, with Failure to Use Due Care Causing Injury, Operating a Motor Vehicle Under the Influence of Alcohol Second Offense and Driving Without a License. On May 16, 2015 at 11:00 p.m., it is alleged that Duncan was intoxicated while driving his truck in the area Wyoming and Puritan when he crashed into the rear of a Detroit police car. The impact of the crash caused the police car to crash into the rear end of another police car. Four police officers and two civilians sustained injuries and were treated at a local hospital. Duncan is expected to be arraigned tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. in 36th District Court.
