Jasin Curtis - Defendant charged in the homicide of French street artist Bilal Berrini case. Curtis has pleaded guilty to Murder Second Degree with a sentence agreement of 25 to 40 years to be served consecutive to two years for the Felony Firearm count. He will be sentenced on June 12, 2015 at 8:30 a.m. before Judge Bruce Morrow.

As a result of the plea in the Curtis case, Judge Morrow has consolidated the trials of Drequone Rich and Dionte Travis. Jury selection and opening statements for Travis will begin on September 8th. Jury selection and opening statements for Rich will begin on September 9th. Testimony is expected to begin on September 10th and is anticipated to last through the week of September 14th.

Evan Reed – Former Tiger baseball player accused of sexually assaulting a woman in a hotel. Reed was scheduled to be in court for the final conference today at 9:00 a.m. before Judge Shannon Walker. Defense counsel mistakenly told his client that he did not have to appear today. Judge Walker adjourned the final conference until Thursday, June 4, 2015 at 9 a.m. so that defendant could be present.
