Detroit Man Charged In Knife Attack and Assault with Intent to Commit Criminal Sexual Conduct

Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy has charged Darian Winfield, 19, of Detroit, in connection with a sexual assault of a Detroit woman. On December 30, 2015, it is alleged that Winfield broke into a house in the 5800 block of Radnor and stabbed a 39-year-old Detroit woman in the chest with a knife, with the intent of sexually assaulting her. The defendant fled from the house on foot. The woman called for help and was conveyed to a local hospital for medical treatment.

Winfield has been charged with Home Invasion First Degree, Assault with Intent to Murder and Assault with Intent to Commit Criminal Sexual Conduct. He is expected to be arraigned in 34th District Court after 11:00 a.m. this morning.
