Detroit Man and Woman Charged in Fatal Shooting on Snowden Street

Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy has charged Victoria Solomon, 27(DOB: 10/9/88) and Montez Maxwell, 19 (DOB: 9/1/97), in connection with a fatal shooting of Tyrone Delaney, 26. All of the parties lived in Detroit. On June 22, 2016 at 1:45 a.m., outside of a house in the 16500 block of Snowden, Solomon had an argument with Delaney about their children. While the argument was going on, it is alleged that Solomon reached into her purse and gave Maxwell a handgun. It is also alleged that Maxwell went up to Delaney and shot the victim multiple times. The Detroit Police and medics were called to the location. Delaney was pronounced dead at the scene. Solomon was arrested on June 22, 2016 by Detroit police officers. Delaney fled on foot from the scene and later turned himself into the police.

Each suspect has been charged with one count of First Degree Premeditated Murder and one count of Felony Firearm. Both defendants were arraigned today in 36th District Court. The probable cause conference is scheduled for July 1, 2016 at 9:00 a.m.; the preliminary examination is scheduled for July 8, 2016. Both hearings are before 36th District Court Judge Patricia Jefferson.
