City of Warren Police Lieutenant Charged with Misdemeanors

Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy has charged City of Warren Police Department Lieutenant Mark N. Okray with Disorderly Person (Intoxicated), a 90 day misdemeanor and Possession of a Weapon Under the Influence, a 93 day misdemeanor. On April 22, 2015, Okray was off-duty and carrying his service weapon at a Detroit bar located in the 1200 block of Randolph. He is alleged to have interfered with an assault investigation being conducted by Detroit Police officers and was detained.

The Wayne County Prosecutor's Office was informed today that Lt. Okray was arraigned on Thursday, March 3, 2016, and released on a $2,000.00 personal bond. His pretrial hearing is before Judge Kevin Robbins on April 4, 2016 at 9 a.m. in 36th District Court. His photograph is attached.
