Harper Woods Woman Charged with Calling in False Bomb Threat

Prosecutor Kym L. Worthy has charged Ebony M. Holloway, 28 (DOB: 4/11/87), of Harper Woods, with False Report of Threat of Bomb/Harmful Device, a four-year felony. On March 7, 2016, at approximately 10:56 a.m., it is alleged that Ms. Holloway called in a phone threat to blow up Harper Woods High School, located in the 20200 block of Beaconsfield. Investigation by the Harper Woods Police Department led to the identification of Ms. Holloway as the suspect in the case. Ms. Holloway is employed as a lunch assistant at an elementary school in the Harper Woods School District.

Further information regarding the case will be presented in court at the Preliminary Examination. The defendant was arraigned today. The Probable Cause Conference is scheduled for March 16, 2016 at 1:30 p.m. and the Preliminary Examination is scheduled for March 23, 2016 at 1:30 p.m. in 32-A District Court. A $25,000 personal bond was set, with conditions not to be on any Harper Woods school property. Please review the attached photograph of the defendant.
